

LONG KEY:

Flagler's Island Getaway for the Rich & Famous

For two and a half decades the Long Key Fishing Camp was known throughout the world and cherished by a loyal clientele that included prominent inventors, businessmen, nobility, poets, politicians, and writers. Then it was destroyed by the 1935 Labor Day Hurricane and faded into obscurity.

Join Thomas Neil Knowles, author of Long Key, Flagler's Island Getaway for the Rich & Famous, as he talks about the saga of Henry Flagler's most unique resort and the famous fishing club it spawned. A Key West native whose ancestors came over from the Bahamas in the 1830s, he will discuss the findings of his research, including never-before-published information and photographs he obtained from the caretaker's daughter, and the precise location of the camp in relation to current development.

Wednesday, June 22

Doors open at 5 p.m., Presentation at 6 p.m., book signing to follow.

History & Discovery Center

Keys History & Discovery Center
On the property of the Islander Resort,
a Guy Harvey Outpost, Islamorada, MM 82

RESERVATIONS RECOMMENDED - 305-922-2237

Cost: $25 for non-Discovery Center Members, includes cost of admission to exhibit.
Light appetizers and cash bar available.

For membership information and more, go to www.keyshistory.com

Florida Keys History and Discovery Foundation is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization.

